

The Institute for Hungarian Studies and The Center for European Studies

Invite you to attend

The New Authoritarianism in Hungary

Lecture and Lunch

György Csepeli
Professor of Social Psychology
Eötvös Loránd University

Tuesday, October 30, 2012

Center for European Studies
102 Nichol Avenue
Douglass Campus
12:00 – 2:00 pm

György Csepeli is Professor of Social Psychology at the Institute of Sociology at the Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest, where he is currently also chair of the Department of Sociology and of the Ph.D. program in Interdisciplinary Social Research. Since 2010, he has served as President of the Hungarian Sociological Association. He has published extensively in English and Hungarian on problems related to national identity, inter-ethnic relations, the Roma in Hungary, antisemitism, and communications. Between 2002 and 2006, he served as Political State Secretary in the Ministry of Informatics and Communication.

Light lunch to be served, RSVPS requested

The event is free and open to the public.
To RSVP or for further information, contact european@rci.rutgers.edu